

Some people say any Government health plan is a huge bureaucracy.
 Below are two application forms for personal health insurance. The first is representative of private insurers. The second is from the Government.
 Help me out here. Which one is the bureaucracy?

Private insurer Personal Health Insurance Application Form – 8 pages of questions

The image displays eight pages of a private insurer's Personal Health Insurance Application Form. The pages are numbered 1 through 8 and contain various sections for personal information, health history, and insurance details. The forms are from Aetna Advantage Plans for Individuals, Families and Self-Employed - CO.

- Page 1: Includes personal information, dependent information, and a section for health history (A). It contains a grid for listing conditions and their dates.
- Page 2: Continues the health history section (B) with a grid for listing conditions and their dates.
- Page 3: Contains health history questions (C) and dependent health information (D). It includes a section for dependent health information with a grid for listing conditions.
- Page 4: Contains a section for conditions and agreement (E) and a section for dependent health information (F). It includes a section for dependent health information with a grid for listing conditions.
- Page 5: Contains a section for dependent health information (G) and a section for dependent health information (H). It includes a section for dependent health information with a grid for listing conditions.
- Page 6: Contains a section for dependent health information (I) and a section for dependent health information (J). It includes a section for dependent health information with a grid for listing conditions.
- Page 7: Contains a section for dependent health information (K) and a section for dependent health information (L). It includes a section for dependent health information with a grid for listing conditions.
- Page 8: Contains a section for dependent health information (M) and a section for dependent health information (N). It includes a section for dependent health information with a grid for listing conditions.

Government Medicare Personal Health Insurance Application Form – 8 questions

Date of Birth:
Marital Status:
Type of Medicare Coverage:
Do you have Medicaid:
Are you living outside of the U.S.:
Household Income Range:
Are you receiving health benefits from employer:
Retirement type:	